

Learn English through News

1

In view of a dip in the number of Covid-19 cases, the state government withdrew the daily night curfew imposed from 10 pm to 5 am.

“Night curfew which is being imposed from 10 pm to 5 am is herewith withdrawn,” the order copy by chief secretary P Ravi Kumar read.

Voabulary:

In view of: because or as a result of की वजह से

Dip(Noun): a fall to a lower level, especially for a short time
अस्थायी रूप से घट जाना, कम हो जाना

Withdraw(Verb): to remove something or take something away वापस लेना (प्रस्ताव या बयान)

Impose(Verb): to make a law, rule, opinion, etc. be accepted by using your power or authority अपनी शक्ति या अधिकार के बल पर क़ानून, नियम आदि को मनवाना, थोपना;

Herewith(Adverb): with this letter, etc.

इस (पत्र आदि) के साथ

Learn English through News

2

The hotel industry and the trade body Federation of Karnataka Chamber of Commerce and Industry (FKCCI) welcomed the move.

President of the Bruhat Bengaluru Hotels P C Rao said, “Since there was a sharp drop in the number of Covid-19 cases, we requested the state government to withdraw the night curfew. Most of the hotels receive customers after 10 pm. Tourists visiting Bengaluru or the people going to bars could not be catered under the restrictions. One cannot sit at a bar at 6 pm. Bars usually receive customers during the night. The staff working in the second shift at most of the hotels had lost their jobs. This order by the government is a respite for everyone.”

Vocabulary:

Welcome(Verb): to be pleased to receive or accept something

कुछ प्राप्त या स्वीकार कर प्रसन्न होना, खुशी से ग्रहण करना

Sharp(Adjective):(used about a change of direction or level)
very great and sudden

Learn English through News

3

(दिशा या स्तर में परिवर्तन) अत्यधिक और आकस्मिक; तीखा, अंधा (मोड़)

Cater(Verb): to provide what somebody/something needs or wants

आवश्यकताओं की पूर्ति करना; आवश्यकतानुसार सेवाएँ या वस्तुएँ प्रदान करना

Respite(Noun): a short period of rest from something that is difficult or unpleasant

थोड़े समय का विश्राम; थोड़ी फुरसत

FKCCI president Dr I S Prasad told The Indian Express that the state economy would improve with the restriction being lifted. “We have been requesting the government to withdraw the night curfew. The cases have come down. I welcome the government’s move. Now, the businesses and trades will revive,” he said.

The government has also allowed the resumption of horse racing. “Horse racing is permitted to resume strictly adhering to Covid-19 appropriate behaviour and SOPs issued by the Health and Family Welfare Department. Number of racing patrons attending horse racing shall be strictly as per the seating capacity of the venue and only fully vaccinated people with Covid-19 vaccines will be allowed entry into such premises,” the order copy read.

Learn English through News

4

Vocabulary:

Come Down: to fall down

नीचे गिरना

Move(Verb): to change position or to put something in a different position

स्थान बदलना या किसी वस्तु को अन्य स्थान पर ले जाना, हिलना या हिलाना;
खिसकना या खिसकाना

Revive(Verb): to become or to make somebody/something strong or healthy again; to come or to bring somebody back to life or consciousness

किसी का पुनरुज्जीवित होना या करना; किसी का पुनः जीवित होना या करना

Resumption(Noun): beginning again or continuing after a pause or interruption

पुनः आरंभ होने या करने या जारी रहने की क्रिया (विराम या बाधा के बाद); पुनरांरंभ

Adhere to : to act in the way that is required by (something, such as a rule, belief, or promise)

Premises(Noun): the building and the land around it that a business owns or uses

Learn English through News

5

Source: <https://www.thehindubusinessline.com/>

Rapid English:

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/rapidenglish4u>

Twitter: <https://twitter.com/RapidEnglish4u>

Instagram: <https://www.instagram.com/rapidenglish4u/>

Telegram: <http://telegram.me/rapideenglish4u>

Rohit Dayani (English Trainer):

Instagram: <https://www.instagram.com/imrohitdayani/>

Twitter: <https://twitter.com/imrohitdayani>